A will is legal document of a testator granting inheritance to certain individuals.

The will can't go into effect until the death of the testator.

Hebrews 8:10-11

¹⁰ But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day, says the LORD: I will put my laws in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. ¹¹ And they will not need to teach their neighbors, nor will they need to teach their relatives, saying, 'You should know the LORD.' For everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me already.

Hebrews 8:12-13

¹² And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins.” ¹³ When God speaks of a “new” covenant, it means he has made the first one obsolete. It is now out of date and will soon disappear.

The recipient can either accept or reject the terms of a will. He can't change them.
