

The Walk of Faith: Learning to Listen and Obey

1 Samuel 3:9 (NASB)

'...Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.'

Questions often asked:

1. Does God still speak today other than through His written word?

2. Does God want to speak to me?

3. If He does speak, why can't I hear Him?

Questions often asked:

4. Should we expect God to be so intimately involved with our lives to want to direct us with His Spirit?

1. Does God still speak today other than through His written word?

Jesus told us that we could expect to be guided to truth.

John 16:13-15 (NKJV)

¹³ However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.

14 He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you.

15 All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

Romans 7:1-6 (HCSB)

¹ Since I am speaking to those who understand law, brothers, are you unaware that the law has authority over someone as long as he lives? ² For example, a married woman is legally bound to her husband while he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law regarding the husband.

³ So then, if she gives herself to another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law. Then, if she gives herself to another man, she is not an adulteress.

⁴ Therefore, my brothers, you also were put to death in relation to the law through the [crucified] body of the Messiah, so that you may belong to another—to Him who was raised from the dead—that we may bear fruit for God.

⁵ For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions operated through the law in every part of us and bore fruit for death. ⁶ But now we have been released from the law, since we have died to what held us, so that we may serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old letter of the law.
